

Participant Records

Each participant will have two official records. One will be kept by the court and will include assessment information, releases, court orders, and the program contract. The other record will be maintained by the treatment provider and will contain such documents as the assessments, progress notes, attendance records, and 12-step meeting sheets.