MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PRETRIAL MOTIONS

COMES NOW the Defendant, through counsel, and moves the Court for an Order extending the time within which the defendant may file pretrial motions through and including a period of six (6) months from the counsel for the defendant's first access to the discovery as provided by the state.

This additional time is requested for the reasons that this case is extraordinary as to the voluminous content of the discovery, the number of witnesses, and with crucial scientific questions that relate to each individual count of the above indictments.

The State had six (6) months from the delivery of the case material from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation, and the District Attorney has greater resources than the Defendant and still apparently needed six months to properly assess and develop the state's case regarding this request.

WHEREFORE, counsel for Defendant requests that the time for filing pretrial motions in this case be extended through and including six (6) months from the date of arraignment.

Respectfully submitted, this 23rd day of September, 2003.
